

Scotland's Finest Castles and Gardens 11th - 18th September 2022 (7 nights)

This spectacular tour explores the very best castles and gardens in Scotland, as well as following some of its most scenic driving routes through the Scottish borders and highlands. Expect majestic castles, beautiful planting schemes, private gardens, the vibrancy of Edinburgh and the luxury of one of Scotland's most acclaimed new hotels.

Sunday 11th September

We meet at the Radisson Blu Hotel, Edinburgh in the late morning. From here we board our coach for the journey to Inverness. It is a drive of around 4 hours, so all you have to do, is enjoy the Scottish scenery and relax. We will make a lunch stop at The House of Bruar. Later, we check into the 4-star Ness Walk Hotel, Inverness. We have dinner in the hotel (included).

Monday 12th September

Today we visit two inspired private highland gardens. The first, Logie House and Steading is an extensive estate originating from the 17th century, with a vast array of herbaceous plants. We meet the owner before strolling down to the steading with its cafe (lunch included), eclectic shops and art gallery.

In the afternoon we visit a private garden located in a magnificent highland glen, at 1200 feet above sea level. It is a glorious garden of shrubs, herbaceous plants, rhododendrons, trees and spectacular views down the Findhorn River. We meet the owners for a walk through the gardens before returning to Inverness, where your evening is at leisure.

Tuesday 13th September

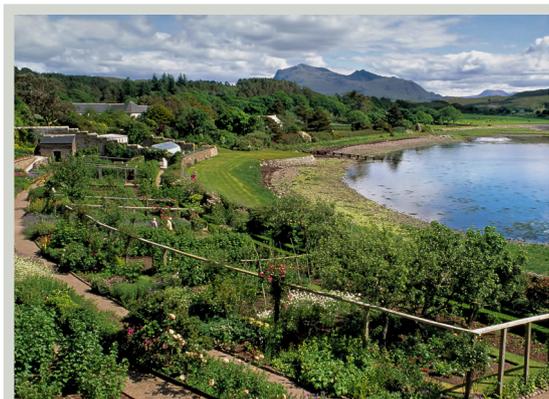

We have a beautiful drive today across the highlands to the west coast, to see two of Scotland's most intriguing gardens. We will stop for coffee enroute and then visit Durnamuck Garden, a private coastal plantsman's garden on Little Loch Broom with stunning views. We meet the owners to hear how they developed this unique space.

Afterwards, we continue to Inverewe Garden, a lush garden full of unusual and wonderful plants which thrive thanks to the warmth of the Gulf Stream. We have lunch at Inverewe (independent) before heading back to Inverness. Dinner is included in the hotel.

Wednesday 14th September

This morning we visit a castle famed for its connections with Shakespeare's Macbeth. Cawdor Castle, which dates from the late 14th century, was built as a private fortress by the Thaness of Cawdor. Three immaculate gardens surround the castle. There is time for exploration and lunch (included).

or join a cruise along Loch Ness to enjoy the scenery. Your evening is at leisure to enjoy the vibrant restaurants in Inverness.

Thursday 15th September

After checking out of our hotel, we make our way to Inverness station to catch the train back to Edinburgh, it is a most scenic journey. In the afternoon, we visit Jupiter Artland. This private collection of sculptures is situated in 100-acre parkland surrounding a Jacobean manor house. The 35 site-specific works include pieces by Andy Goldsworthy, Ian Hamilton Finlay and Charles Jencks. We will have an early supper here (included), then check into the 4-star Radisson Blu Hotel, located on the Royal Mile, Edinburgh.

Friday 16th September

Today we take a scenic drive south of Edinburgh through the beautiful Scottish Borders to Floors Castle, the seat of the Duke of Roxburghe and Scotland's largest inhabited castle. Here we meet the head gardener for a private guided tour of the walled gardens, followed by free time to visit the castle and have lunch (independent). Our second stop today is to a private estate, which has one of the best contemporary walled gardens in the UK. This stunning one-acre garden will be at its peak in early September with bold colours and innovative design. Dinner is included in Edinburgh.

Saturday 17th September

This morning we make a visit to a most attractive private, contemporary garden planted around a farmstead, rescued from dereliction. We meet the owner of this splendid garden that displays excellent structure, imaginative use of objects and eye-catching planting.

We continue onto Greywalls, a luxury hotel that overlooks Muirfield Golf Course. This attractive Edwardian house was designed by Sir Edwin Lutyens in 1901, and the 6-acre formal gardens are attributed to Gertrude Jekyll. We enjoy a guided tour of the gardens with the head gardener, after lunch in the garden room (included). We return to Edinburgh mid-afternoon where the remainder of the day is at leisure.

Sunday 18th September

Our final day starts with a visit to the majestic Edinburgh Castle, a historic fortress which dominates the skyline of Edinburgh. We then have Sunday lunch at one of Edinburgh's finest restaurants, before waving goodbye for your onward journeys.

NOTE: Our tour starts and ends in Edinburgh. We can assist with travel planning. This tour can be combined with our Yorkshire & Lake District tour to create a fascinating 2 weeks exploring the north of the UK. Full details of tour joining and departure can be found on our website.
